

Head of Finance

c£75k package

Glasgow

Our client is an ambitious and fast-growing property investment business established to provide a conduit for equity funds into the property market. Using partnership and corporate structures, our client co-invests jointly with corporate and private individual investors, and asset manages each project or fund through to completion and exit. Combined investments transacted across the UK in the last four years exceed £1bn and investor pre-tax earnings exceed £70m on investments exited to date. Building on this success, our client is now launched on its next phase of growth following additional equity investment which will provide £500m of new funds.

Integral to the current development strategy is the appointment of a high calibre Head of Finance. Providing key support to a compact, focused and talented team, you will be responsible for all aspects of financial reporting and control for our client and its associated Joint Venture vehicles, as well as interfacing regularly with auditors, banks and shareholders.

Proactive, self-motivated and commercially aware, you will be a qualified CA with a proven track record of achievement, probably with exposure to the property sector. As well as having strong technical and interpersonal skills, you will have excellent analytical, organisational and influencing abilities, together with the drive and stature to succeed in a demanding and fast-moving environment.

This is an outstanding opportunity to join a dynamic and successful business at an exciting stage of its strategic development, and to contribute to its future growth.
