

THE EDI GROUP LTD

Chief Executive

c. £70,000 plus car and bonus

The EDI Group Ltd is a successful property development company with a net worth of £21 million. Notable major achievements have included Edinburgh Park, now firmly established as one of the leading business parks in Britain. Founded in 1988 and wholly owned by the City of Edinburgh Council, the company exists to develop projects within the City of Edinburgh and its hinterland in a manner consistent with the economic development objectives of its shareholder.

Over the years the company has built up a diverse portfolio of property interests and wide-ranging experience of property development and economic development management. Following a strategic review, the company is well positioned to maximise the opportunities presented by the exceptional economic expansion presently taking place in Edinburgh and the surrounding area.

An accomplished senior manager from a property development background is now sought to take the company forward at a time of major change in its strategic direction. Reporting to and working as a key member of the Board, you will be responsible for the strategic management of the company and for its efficient operation.

Ideally possessing a relevant degree or professional qualification, you will have a strong track record of delivering innovative and effective property based projects, with an emphasis on partnership working. This should include experience of managing a business or a large part of an organisation, as well as strong financial and staff management skills, amongst other matters.

Applications for the position, in the form of a CV and covering letter, quoting reference 00/20/ST, should be forwarded to Charles McGarry or Tania Rideout at Fletcher Jones Ltd, Hanover House, 45 Hanover Street, Edinburgh, EH2 2PJ. Telephone 0131 226 5709 Fax 0131 220 1940
