

European Finance Director

Scotland

Our client is a highly successful, acquisitive and rapidly expanding, blue chip listed company engaged in the design and manufacture of high value capital products. It is the global market leader in its field and its major OEM customer base reflects the company's enviable reputation for product quality, service and innovation. As part of its international development and succession strategies, the company now wishes to appoint a high calibre Finance Director within its European Headquarters.

Reporting to the European Managing Director, you will be a key, high profile member of a compact senior executive team, playing a wide ranging role across the company's European businesses. This will entail responsibility for all aspects of finance and associated systems, as well as the provision of financial guidance and commercial support to colleagues, both locally and internationally, regarding major business initiatives such as acquisitions.

·FLETCHER·JONES·
search and selection

Comprehensive Six Figure Package

Professionally qualified, pro-active and commercially aware, you will be a highly experienced, accomplished and ambitious senior finance executive who is at or near the top of your profession and ready for a fresh career challenge within a stimulating and rewarding environment. Enthusiastic by nature, with strong interpersonal skills, you will have a proven track record of financial management success within a results-oriented manufacturing or engineering company of scale, having been instrumental in driving business change and improvement initiatives. As well as being a highly motivated leader and developer of people, you should also have considerable knowledge and experience of US GAAP, ideally gained within a US owned, international company.

This represents an outstanding opportunity to join a dynamic international business at an exciting time in its global development and to play a key role in shaping its future success. The appointment also provides a strong platform for further personal and professional development.

Applications in strictest confidence, quoting reference 28/07FT and providing remuneration details, should be forwarded by email to submit@fletcher-jones.co.uk for the attention of Charles McGarry, Director or Lisa Garrow, Fletcher Jones Ltd, 12 Castle Terrace, Edinburgh EH1 2DP.