

HEAD OF IT

Central Scotland

Scottish Radio Holdings plc is a highly successful and acquisitive quoted media group with extensive interests in commercial radio, publishing and outdoor advertising. It is the market leader in local radio broadcasting in both Scotland and Northern Ireland, with the award winning Radios Forth and Clyde being amongst its pre-eminent brands. The advent of digital technology amongst other innovations makes this an exciting time for the broadcasting industry and part of the company's strategy for the 21st Century, now involves the appointment of a high calibre Head of IT.

Reporting to the Group Finance Director, and working closely with senior management throughout the company, you will lead a compact and highly focused IT function, providing central computer support, advice and direction within a devolved business structure. This will include ensuring that the IT strategy reflects corporate objectives as well as managing, developing and implementing mission critical systems and applications in a cost effective manner. It will also involve

·FLETCHER·JONES·
search and selection

Competitive package

co-ordinating multi-site operational support and technical standards for PC hardware and software as well as LAN and WAN networking, within a rapid response environment, entailing some travel within the UK.

Of graduate calibre, you will be well motivated, pro-active and commercially aware, with a proven track record and highly developed technical skills. Apart from the media sector, this might include experience in the hotels and leisure, logistics, healthcare, emergency services or travel industries, where booking, planning and other time critical applications are a feature. Strong interpersonal, management and organisational skills, a hands-on approach to problem solving and previous exposure to sales and customer led operations, within a multi-site structure, will also prove advantageous.

SRH offers a generous salary and benefits package including car, healthcare, sharesave and profit related schemes. Location will take account of individual circumstances.

Applications in strictest confidence, providing salary details and quoting reference 99/3/H to Charles McGarry or Karen Nicholas at Fletcher Jones Ltd, Hanover House, 45/51 Hanover Street, Edinburgh EH2 2PJ or e-mail to: replies@fletcher-jones.co.uk Tel: 0131 226 5709. Fax: 0131 220 1940.