

IT Director

Edinburgh/London

Our client is a dynamic, highly successful and rapidly expanding financial services company, which is a prominent market leader in its field. It has an enviable and impressive reputation for quality, results, growth and innovation and a key part of the company's development strategy now involves the appointment of a high calibre IT Director.

Working closely with and supporting colleagues at all levels, you will have a highly visible, pro-active, hands-on role, spearheading all IT activity and leading a compact, distributed and highly focused IT team. This will entail acting as the key interface between IT and operational colleagues, as well as with external advisors and suppliers, thus ensuring that infrastructure, systems, processes and procedures meet business needs and are delivered to the highest quality standards. In addition to confirming that best practice and appropriate SLAs are adhered to, you will also ensure that the IT strategy reflects, supports and contributes towards the achievement of corporate objectives.

Of graduate calibre, you will be well motivated, pro-active and commercially aware, with a proven track record and highly developed technical skills gained within a performance-led and customer oriented operation. Experience in the Financial Services sector would be advantageous, while strong interpersonal, influencing, management and organisational skills, together with a hands-on approach to problem solving, will undoubtedly enhance your impact in this key role.

This represents an outstanding opportunity to join a highly progressive and widely admired company at an exciting stage in its development, and to contribute pro-actively to and support its continued success.
